

Bio: Jared McDonald

Nominee for IASB President-Elect

Jared McDonald represents Director District #8 in south central Iowa on the IASB Board of Directors. He began his service on the IASB Board in 2021. McDonald has served on the Winterset Community School District Board of Directors since 2017 and currently serves as president. McDonald was involved in the superintendent search process in Spring of 2020.

McDonald is the Museum Director for the Madison County Historical Complex in Winterset. McDonald has served on the Madison County Health Care System Board of Trustees since 2015.

He sits on the IASB Governance and Bylaws Committee and serves as a Vice Chair on the Iowa Schools Joint Investment Trust (ISJIT) Board of Trustees.

He has earned five IASB Annual Board Awards for his ongoing commitment to learning. This award is given annually to individual board members who participate in a minimum of 15 hours of IASB-led learning opportunities.

McDonald lives in Winterset, Iowa, with his wife, Tara, and their 2 children, Sawyer and Charla.