Education leaders recognized for commitment to learning

Des Moines, Iowa – The Iowa Association of School Boards (IASB) presented the 2023-24 Annual Board Awards on Nov. 16 during the IASB Annual Convention in Des Moines. The awards are given each year to board members, board teams and superintendents/AEA chief administrators/community college presidents who are committed to improving their knowledge and skills by attending IASB-led learning events.

“This year, we have a record number of Annual Board Awards program recipients.” said Jesse Howard, IASB Board President, “I am impressed with the high standard of service that these board members, superintendents/AEA chiefs, and board teams are setting for their peers across the state. They are modeling learning for students in their district and using that learning to improve education for those same students. Congratulations!”

Individual Achievement Award certificates were presented to 307 board members from 109 PK-12 school boards, three area education agency boards and two community college board. Recipients completed a minimum of 15 hours of learning in one year.

Team Achievement Award plaques were presented to 46 school boards who had a majority of board members earn the Individual Achievement Award. Among these, 13 teams had every member receive the Individual Achievement Award.

The Award of Honor certificates were presented to 44 superintendents and one AEA chief administrator who completed a minimum of 15 hours of learning in one year and had at least two individual board members in the district, AEA or community college who earned Individual Achievement Awards.
